

The 22nd Biennial Convention of International Lutheran Deaf Association

Jesus is the Cornerstone

You also are like living stones. As you come to him you are being built into a house for worship. There you will be holy priests. You will offer spiritual sacrifices. God will accept them because of what Jesus Christ has done.

ILDA President's Letter

International Lutheran Deaf Association

"And looking up to heaven, He sighed and saith unto him, Eph-pha-tha, That is, be opened." St. Mark 7:34

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Welcome to the 22nd biennial International Lutheran Deaf Association (ILDA) Convention held at Austin, Texas on July 18-21, 2003. Jesus Lutheran Church of the Deaf hosts the ILDA Convention second time in the history.

The convention theme – Jesus is the Cornerstone sounds fit since the host church happens to have the same name – Jesus Lutheran Church of the Deaf. Also, Jesus is our real cornerstone in our lives. The verse of this theme is based from 1 Peter 2:5a – “You also are like living stones. As you come to him you are being built into a house for worship.”

This convention marks first time in the ILDA history to be held either at Concordia University campus or any LCMS property. The host city – Austin, Texas is home of the capital city in Texas, Texas School for the Deaf and University of Texas and their well known mascot – Longhorns!

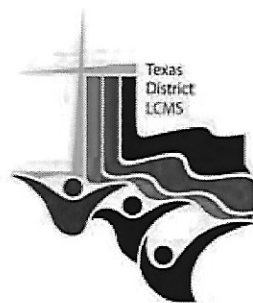

We want to thank Jesus Lutheran Church of the Deaf for hosting this convention and their hard work to make it happen.

May the Lord be with you when you go home after the convention. We will look forward to see you again in 2015 ILDA convention and the site of the convention in 2015 will be announced.

Warmly and sincerely in Christian love,

Jeff Padon,
2009-2013 ILDA President

Texas District President's Letter

June 24, 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings in the name of our risen and victorious Savior, Jesus Christ!

On behalf of the Texas District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, welcome back to Austin, Texas and to the new campus of Concordia University Texas!

Texas continues to be one of the fast growing states in our country, ranking high not only in the number of incoming immigrants from around the world, but also people from other states of our country moving to Texas. Our metropolitan areas are ever expanding, overtaking and redefining communities that once were considered rural. Austin has become the 11th largest city in the United States! Our mission to reach those who don't know Christ is huge.

The time you spend here at the International Lutheran Deaf Association Convention will not only be a blessing for you, but also to those you serve. Your specialized ministry is so very valuable. Your approach to sharing God's love and demonstrating genuine concern for the well-being of the deaf communities around the world might be the only opportunity for some to know Jesus as their Savior.

I pray for God to show Himself mightily among you, and guide you in your deliberations and decisions. May you be "Living Stones" sharing with others the power of Christ's victorious work in your lives!

Your partner in mission,

LUTHERAN DEAF MISSION SOCIETY

9907 SAPPINGTON ROAD | ST. LOUIS MO 63128-1644 | www.deafjesus.org

Welcome

On behalf of the Lutheran Deaf Mission Society, it gives me great pleasure to extend warm greetings to the attendees of the 22nd biennial International Lutheran Deaf Association Convention being held on July 18-21, 2013 at Texas Concordia University.

The theme of this convention is "Jesus is the Cornerstone." This theme is beautiful and simple. "...You are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together grows into a holy temple in the Lord." (Ephesians 2:19b-21) ESV. Without Him, the I.L.D.A. would not exist. Can you imagine that? But we thank Him for His will to put His cornerstone into the I.L.D.A., our churches, and our lives, so we may serve Him by learning the truth, rejecting error, and loving one another.

I pray that the Lord of the church through the Holy Spirit would guide and bless you during these days of meeting, and help you to arrive at decisions that will be helpful to His Church, so that you can come to know the saving Gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ, our true Cornerstone, and share the wonderful news to Deaf people in the United States and over the world.

God bless you! And, once again, welcome!

In His and your service,

July, 2012

We welcome y'all to the 22nd biennial conference of International Lutheran Deaf Association at Concordia University Texas! We hosted the 1993 ILDA conference in Austin, TX and twenty years later, we are welcoming you again to our beautiful city and state!

We will have times of fellowship when we can share with each other. We will have devotions, Bible studies, prayer, and times for worship. We have planned exciting workshops for you so you can gain knowledge, get more tools, and be better equipped for serving the Lord at your church and in your community.

International Lutheran Deaf Association

Our Mission

ILDA is an organization committed to spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ among deaf and hard-of-hearing people through mission work in the U.S. and around the world. In our local congregations, we work together to tell the deaf people in our communities about the salvation we have in Jesus. Our main focus is to support Lutheran mission work with deaf people in other countries. We support them with our money, prayers, and people to do the work.

What is ILDA?

The International Lutheran Deaf Association is a fellowship of Christians who have joined together to encourage one another to grow in God's Word and to bring that Word to the world. Our members are primarily from Deaf congregations of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod, where we worship in American Sign Language. Also among us are Deaf members of hearing churches which provide access through ASL interpreters.

ILDA began its ministry in 1971, holding its first biennial convention in Chicago. Working in partnership with the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and the Lutheran Deaf Mission Society, we desire to be faithful people of God, led by Him and our blessed Savior, Jesus Christ, and inspired by His Word. We aspire to encourage faith and Christian service in our affiliated congregations and to promote the Gospel of Christ among the Deaf everywhere. We strive to enrich the lives of Deaf people through spiritual growth and to develop Christian leadership among all with whom we associate.

With over forty years of faithful service, the International Lutheran Deaf Association offers praise to the Lord of the Church for the many accomplishments it has been permitted to achieve and blessings upon its ministry.

What Is ILDA Doing?

With over $350,000 in mission projects funded since its inception in 1971, both at home and abroad, ILDA continues its mission of Christian service. Every two years ILDA selects projects to support from the list of applicants. In past years we have supported Deaf education and leadership training in Ghana, India, and Macau, summer camp for Deaf children, youth service projects, education and rehabilitation for challenged Deaf adults, the Deaf Institute of Theology, and scholarships for individuals preparing for full time service in Lutheran Deaf ministry. Some of these projects continue to receive ongoing support through ILDA's mission program, while we are alert for new opportunities for service and outreach.

Working in partnership with congregations of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and the Lutheran Deaf Mission Society, the International Lutheran Deaf Association endeavors to promote spiritual growth and Christian service among its membership. We also seek to give greater visibility to those outside the hearing church and demonstrate their ability to administer their own ministerial programs.

As the LCMS launches into her second century of bringing God's Word to Deaf people in their own language, the International Lutheran Deaf Association confidently faces the challenge of adding our support to the Church's mission.

Realizing that God opens doors of opportunity where we can be of service to Him, ILDA will continue its mission of outreach wherever such opportunities exist.

Deaf Christian Leadership – Linsay Darnall, Jr.

What does Deaf Christian Leadership mean? The difference between worldly and Christian leadership will be shown and you will learn how you can lead as a Christian. You can lead not only as a Christian, but as a Deaf Christian in the Deaf Community. The best example is Jesus Christ, who came to be a servant and to serve others, but called many to follow Him.

Linsay Darnall, Jr.

Linsay Darnall Jr., is a versatile individual whose experience ranges from chasing cattle in western Nebraska when he was young to serving the National Association of the Deaf as a board member. His reputation as an eloquent speaker and an expert advocate for Deaf people's rights is held in esteem across the nation.

Born to Deaf parents, Darnall grew up in Polk, Nebraska. He and his brother attended their parents' alma mater, Nebraska School for the Deaf in Omaha. He then attended Gallaudet University, where he studied government, before returning to Nebraska to continue his advocacy and community work.

Darnall has been heavily involved in the community for several decades. Among his experience is serving as vice-president of Nebraska Association of the Deaf for two years, president of Nebraska School for the Deaf Alumni Association for 17 years, and as National Association of the Deaf Region II board member for two years. He is serving on the Hands and Voices Board and Early Hearing Detection and Intervention Advisory Board. He also co-founded the Nebraska Deaf Heritage Museum and Cultural Center. His work with deaf youth and theatre was featured in the Omaha World-Herald. Darnall received the Outstanding use of American Sign Language award from the Gallaudet University Theater Department and The James Sowell Appreciation Award from Nebraska Association of the Deaf.

Saturday, July 20

Outreach and Missions – Pastor Michael Newman

“Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field.” (Luke 10:2) Are you ready to do some outreach and missions within your community? What can you do? How can you do it? You will learn about reaching out to others and serving in God’s harvest field.

Using Technology and Media for Church – Richard Norton

Using technology and media for your church can be wonderful if they are used effectively and wisely. There are several ways to show Bible verses visually. You will learn about creating a simple, clear and effective presentation. We will discuss and learn more about using digital tools.

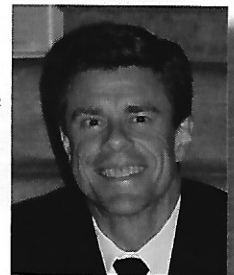

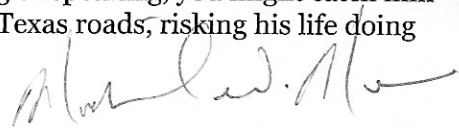

God’s Word in Your Hands – Jennifer Ceyanes

You will see how God’s Word in your hands can become a wonderful visual tool for sharing the Gospel! Several videos that show Bible verses and stories signed in ASL will be shown. You will learn how to put God’s Word in your hands for your church and your community. We will be using video and pictures.

Pastor Michael Newman

Michael Newman has been a pastor, teacher, author, and speaker for over 20 years. He has served churches in Texas, Minnesota, and in the Chicago area, and continues to be active in writing and in a variety of speaking venues. His goal is to create practical and understandable resources that inspire and transform. Married to his wife Cindy since 1983, they have been blessed with two wonderful daughters. When not writing or speaking, you might catch him hanging out with his family, running a few miles on the Texas roads, risking his life doing yard work, or enjoying a good book.
