THE CROSS

Blest they who seek,
While in their youth,
With spirit meek,
The way of truth;

To them the sacred Scriptures now display
Christ as the only true and living way.
His precious blood on Calvary was given
To make them heirs of endless bliss in heaven;
And e'en on earth the child of God can trace
The glorious blessings of his Savior's grace.

For them He bore
His father's frown;
For them He wore
The thorny Crown;
Nailed to the Cross,
Endured its pain
That His life's loss
Might be their gain.
Then haste to choose
That better part,
Now dare refuse
The Lord thy heart,
Lest He declare,
"I know you not."
And deep despair
Should be your lot.

Now look to Jesus, who on Calvary died,
And trust on Him alone who there was crucified.

HISTORY OF OUR LUTHERAN MISSION FOR THE DEAF

Our Mission in Ft. Wayne

The Detroit field takes its name from its headquarters, Detroit, the preaching stations are in Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana. In the city of Detroit there is Our Savior's Congregation with 60 communicant and 27 voting members. Services are held every Sunday, and the congregation has pledged itself to contribute $50 monthly to the salary of its pastor. The Detroit field at present embraces five other cities, among them two cities with fair-sized and energetic flocks of deaf, Fort Wayne in Indiana and Toledo in Ohio. Let us now learn of our work in Fort Wayne.

preaching regularly and instructing prospective members. In 1918 Rev. Schroeder was called to the Kansas City field, and Rev. Gielow, serving the vacancy in Detroit, supplied Fort Wayne also. In November, 1919, Rev. Gielow was relieved by the Chicago missionary, Rev. Dahms, who conducted services monthly in Fort Wayne until the Rev. E. Bohn took charge. Rev. Bohn made his residence in Fort Wayne as center of a new field.

Rev. Edward Bohn had entered the ministry in 1900, serving four hearing congregations, three in Michigan and one in Ohio, before he was called to work among the deaf in 1920. He studied the sign-language under Mr. Patterson, Congregation of deaf in Ft. Wayne which has pledged itself to contribute $10.00 monthly for the support of the preaching of the Gospel among them.

Fort Wayne, Ind., is one of the oldest preaching stations of our Mission, and the deaf there have had many missionaries preaching to them. Rev. A. Reinke, Sen., founder of the Deaf-Mute Mission, received requests from the deaf in Fort Wayne to preach to them in the sign-language, and the first service was held probably in the spring or fall of 1894. First, services were conducted at irregular intervals, then Rev. Arthur Reinke took charge of the territory and made regular trips to this city from Chicago and began to gather the deaf into a congregation. From 1903 to 1911 Rev. Boll, who was stationed in Toledo, served the deaf in Fort Wayne. Having been called to New York in 1911, Rev. Boll was succeeded by Rev. O. C. Schroeder, who made trips to Fort Wayne from Detroit every month.

a teacher at the Ohio School for the Deaf, and entered active service in the Ohio field, coming to the Fort Wayne field in April 1921. But Rev. Bohn's days were numbered even when he entered the Mission, for cancer of the liver and complications had developed. Already in June he was compelled to refrain from traveling, and he could preach only in Fort Wayne. He preached twice a month, the last service was conducted in September. January 25th, 1922, he breathed his last, the only missionary to the deaf taken from our ranks by death. The Fort Wayne deaf were without a shepherd, and the Board was obliged to rearrange the fields.

Again Rev. Gielow was asked to serve until permanent relief could be obtained for the Detroit field. In the spring of 1923 Pastor E.

J. Scheibert took charge of the Detroit field, and he has been serving Fort Wayne since that time.

Our Fort Wayne deaf have been reared in a Lutheran atmosphere, many of them have received their religious training at our School for the Deaf in Detroit. Fort Wayne itself is one of our Lutheran centers with Concordia College in the midst of a number of old Lutheran congregations. Also the deaf are strong Lutherans and cling to their church. Mr. Moellering, now deceased, was one of the influential and active deaf-mutes in establishing and maintaining this mission; among the old-timers we still have John Lotz and Louis Berghorn and the Bullermans. Fort Wayne has perhaps 25-30 deaf-mutes, about two thirds of them are Lutherans. This congregation has pledged a contribution of $10 monthly to the salary of the missionary. May others follow this example.

May the Lord abide with this mission in the future and strengthen the faith of our brethren unto eternal life.

STUDIES IN LUTHER'S CATECHISM

Table of Duties To Widows

(1 Tim. 5, 5, 6)

In Timothy 5 Paul shows how the widows in the Christian congregation should be taken care of. "If any widow have children or nephews," they should provide for her; "if any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them." And the church should take care of those that are widows indeed and desolate. Such a widow Paul describes in verses 5 and 6.

"A widow indeed" does not "live in pleasure," that is, she does not give herself to pleasure and live in sin, for one who does that "is dead while she liveth." By her life such a widow shows that she is not a believer, and therefore is dead in trespasses (law-breakings) and sins, Eph. 2, 1. And this is true of any and every one who gives himself to the sinful pleasures of this world. Woe to such widows and people like them, Luke 12, 19, 20.

A Christian widow "trusteth in God." A widow is left alone, therefore blessed that widow that hopes in God and expects help and support from Him, for "He relieveth the fatherless and widow," Ps. 146, 9. And God also says: "Let thy widows trust in Me," Jer. 49, 11. God will not leave her nor forsake her. Therefore she "continueth in supplications and prayers night and day." In everything she goes to her Father in Christ Jesus, worships Him, and pours out her heart unto Him, and she does it day and night. Happy is such a widow! Such a life, however, God expects not only from a widow, but from every Christian. God says to every one: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart," Prov. 3, 5. And we should also continue in supplications and prayers night and day, Luke 18, 17; 1 Thess. 5, 17; Eph. 6, 18. Then we are Christians indeed, living not unto ourselves, but unto Him who died for us and arose again, 2 Cor. 5, 15. May God richly bless the Lenten season in our hearts so that we all trust in Him and live unto Him!

ITEMS FROM THE FIELD

New York Mission—St. Matthew's Lutheran Mission to the Deaf mourns the loss of three communicant members. Two of them had been on the pastor's sick list for a long period and received frequent private ministrations. Mrs. Arwinski, the wife of our faithful deacon, died of a complication of diseases at the Lutheran hospital in East New York where she had lain helpless for six months. She came to us from Germany and has been feeble as long as I have known her. But she bore her cross patiently and glorified her Savior, trusting in His grace for the gift of eternal life. — Mrs. Nebel, the wife of Mr. Nebel, a faithful attendant at services in spite of his age of 84, has been ailing since she celebrated her golden wedding in a public service. She died of general weakness in the hospital where she had been taken to a few days before her death. Whenever Holy Communion was celebrated in church, she received it privately. And, oh, how glad she was to receive the comfort of the divine word. She fell asleep in Jesus, whom she learned to know in instructions and whom she confessed in confirmation at St. Luke's Church in the year 1914. — Mrs. Calkins died in Jersey City of tuberculosis. Her cheerful disposition will be remembered by all. Cheerful she was, though she had lost her husband three years ago, and by her labor had to support her two children. Her strength and patience came from knowing Jesus as her Savior, whom she confessed in public confirmation. She was steadfast to the end and God took her from this vale of tears to Himself in heaven. — Mr. and Mrs. John Breden mourn the loss of their infant child. Their consolation is that their infant child put on Christ in baptism according to the word of the Apostle, "As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ." Gal. 3, 27. — "Lord, teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom," Ps. 90, 12. Our heartfelt sympathy to all the bereaved.

Into communicant membership have been received by confirmation Margaret Cook in St. John church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, and Dorothy Lindhorst in the Lutheran church at Kingston, N. Y. Quite a number of our members from New York and Brooklyn came to witness the confirmation at Staten Island, and a few from Albany and one from Brooklyn were present at the confirmation in Kingston. May God keep them steadfast in His grace, and may they never forget their confirmation vow.

Chicago Mission—During the holiday season we had the basement meeting-room, kitchen, stairway, and cloak-room decorated by a painter. Our Ladies' Aid Society and the Silent Lutheran Club each paid half the bill which called for $150. Our walls are clean and inviting now. The congregation extends hearty thanks to the two societies for their contributions.

After the Christmas service last December Mr. Hayman, on behalf of the congregation, surprised the pastor with a short speech expressing appreciation of the pastor's services and tendered a purse collected from members of the church as a Christmas gift. A week later, on New year's day, the members of the church silently and quickly set tables in the basement and led the pastor down to another surprise, a party in honor of his birthday. — On February 15 a surprise awaited the pastor's wife. After the service the pastor was asked to bring her, blindfolded, into the meeting-room. When she had been seated and her eyes uncovered, she saw 75 deaf in the room seated at two long tables, before her on the table birthday cakes, a table-lamp made by a deaf couple in Grand Rapids, several packages, an envelope with greetings and money, beside her on the floor a bridge reading-lamp, — the surprise was complete. Members of the church had given her the floor-lamp, money, and a wonderful party; the other gifts were from the pastor and several deaf. What should she say? What shall we say to such kindness and love? As best we could, we thanked our friends for their good will and gifts; but we must again extend our heartfelt thanks to the members of our church and fervently pray the Lord to reward them in His own way for their love and kindness toward pastor and wife.

We also wish to thank them for the sociable evening spent with them. Like a huge family the congregation had met to enjoy a pleasant evening with their pastor and wife, and the occasion will live long in our memory.

Duluth-Superior Mission—In the Duluth-Superior Mission everything seems to be taking its natural course. We still have our services, as during the past year, alternately in Duluth and Superior. In both places the Lutheran Congregations have given us the use of their churches. But the time of the Duluth services has been changed from 8:00 P. M. to 11:00 A. M. It is hoped that this will improve the attendance. The voting members of our congregation met January 25 and elected the following new officers: President: Mr. Torrell; Vice-President: Mr. Arneson; Secretary: Mr. Round; Treasurer: Mr. Braff. May our congregation also prosper under the guidance of these new officers during this coming year.

At Grand Forks, N. Dak., Peter Heen and Pearl Day have taken up the study of the catechism. This gives us three under instruction there at the present time, Mr. Nic. Flugukvam being the third man under instruction. Mr. Nic. Flugukvam will be confirmed this spring. At our "Bible Class" meetings before services we are all taking up the study of the catechism again. A great interest for this review of the catechism is being shown.

In Devils Lake a great improvement has been made by taking the older pupils for instructors.

They are quite active in teaching the younger children the catechism. During the Sunday-school period on Sunday morning they act as Sunday-school teachers. And should any more polishing of the lesson be needed, an extra period is put in after the Saturday supper, the older children again offering valuable assistance.

The International Falls services will have to be discontinued until spring due to weather conditions. But our "Deaf Lutheran" will always find its way to these people living in the woods of northern Minnesota, even if the winds are blowing and driving the snow into large banks around their home.

A visit was made at Bismark. Here weather conditions also prevented two deaf from attending services. Still 4 deaf were there to hear the message that the missionary brought about the blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth us from all our sins. In the hospital of Bismark a boy was found, who had the misfortune of freezing both of his feet. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Some months ago we reported through this paper, that Mrs. Burton, a hearing lady, married to a deaf man of Cloquet, Minn., was being instructed. Rev. L. Wittenburg, pastor in charge of the mission for the hearing people, has taken charge of her further instruction. May the seed, that has been sown in her heart during her first few lessons, grow and abound, especially, since the pastor of the hearing charge of Cloquet is able to make more frequent visits in Cloquet than the missionary to the deaf.

Our mission seems to be bound to grow. Another new deaf man was located in Superior, Mr. Tandberg, formerly of Cass Lake. Furthermore the number of souls has grown, Corabelle Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Ursin, being baptized January 11, 1925. Mr. and Mrs. Nord also were made happy over the arrival of a baby boy, February 12. May he also in the near future become a child of God by baptism, thereby putting on the righteousness of Jesus Christ, that has been also given, even to these little children.

St. Paul Mission—Property 60×153 has been purchased at the corner of Marshall Ave. and Dunlap St. for the St. Paul chapel, and plans for the building are nearing completion. The site is very favorably located, opposite a public play ground, Central High School, and two blocks from Concordia College.

Since early fall persistent efforts have been made in the interest of our Chapel Fund with splendid results. More than 25 sermons, lectures and stereopticon lectures have been delivered on the deaf mission-work in general; and at the same time interest was quickened for our chapel. As a direct result of a seven-minute address on the floor of the Central Illinois District synod in Rock Island, in October, the sum of $120.75 has already flowed into our Fund and from $200 to $400 more have been assured us. We wish to acknowledge with heartfelt thanks the following donations: North Mankato, $25.00 (plus $5.00 for the Deaf Lutheran treasury — not subscriptions); Hartland, Minn., Norwegian congregation $35.25; Eau Claire, Wis. (Rev. A. M. W. Wahl), $33.44; Winona (Rev. P. Froehlke), $22.51; Sherrill, Iowa, $31.50; Hudson, Wis., $25.00; Chippewa Falls, Wis., $41.55; Owatonna, $21.00; Deerfield, $14.00; Cologne, $38.00; Gaylord, $148.89; Fall Creek, Wis. (Rev. P. Schedler), $40.75; Rollingstone, $45.00; Waconia, $19.60; Carver, $23.43; Chaska, $10.00; Ladies' Mission Circle, Chippewa Falls, Wis., $50.00; Ladies' Mission Society, Beardstown, Ill., $15.00; Sunday School, Beardstown, Ill., $17.75; Widow, Beardstown, Ill., $50.00.

John Simson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Capper, received the sacrament of Holy Baptism in Eau Claire and Albert Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Erickson, in St. Paul. May the Father in heaven keep both in the baptismal grace unto life eternal!

In November, in the basement of Redeemer Church, our Ladies' Aid had a little social gathering. Stereopticon pictures of scenes in Glacier National Park, setting forth the glory of our Creator, were enjoyed by all present, and a splendid social hour occupied the rest of the evening. Many thanks are due Redeemer church and their Ladies' Aid for the use of their equipment. — Mrs. J. W. Early was re-elected president and Mrs. Hansen, vice-president; Miss H. Hendrickson, secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Koch, treasurer. Mrs. Early and Miss Hendrickson are the new visiting committee.

Minneapolis Mission—Miss Evelyn Jung, of Ft. Dodge, Iowa, has completed the study of the catechism according to our correspondence course. In the final review on the catechism, 133 questions, she gave only two wrong answers and one was a little incomplete. In sending in her answers she wrote: "Here are the answers to the review questions. I answered all except the 6th and 94th from memory. — I am so anxious to be confirmed, for as I studied I realized how much Jesus had suffered for us and of what great comfort it is to know we all can be saved." She will be confirmed in Minneapolis on Palm Sunday, God willing, and partake of the Lord's Supper on Easter Day. — In South Dakota eleven deaf are taking this course and our hope and

A. L. Johnson is leading the class. — Also in Minneapolis we have a Bible Class which meets every Thursday evening. At the present time we are studying the Book of Judges. — Such study of the Word surely cannot be without fruit! May God richly bless His Word among the deaf in all places.

On February 16th Mr. J. L. Kondell of Chicago and Miss Meta Hansmann, a teacher at the Delavan School, were united in holy matrimony at Minneapolis. The mother and sister-in-law of the bride were the witnesses. These live in Thorpe and Knapp, Wis., respectively. May the Lord and only Savior Jesus be with them in their home and fill it with true love and happiness!

OUR SIOUX FALLS BIBLE CLASS, of the Word.

prayer is that all will learn to know the Savior and obtain the sweet comfort of knowing that they are saved.

The accompanying picture of our Bible Class of Sioux Falls was taken several years ago. Is the class still existing to-day? Yes, thanks to God! During these years the class has read Matthew, Mark, and now is at the 15th chapter of Luke. Every two weeks their pastor sends them notes on a chapter or part thereof, which are read to the class by a leader selected by them, after they have read the verses. When the Bible Class was organized years ago, their pastor sent them "Rules for the Reading and Study of the Bible." These you will find on another page. Mr. O. Brorby, Rockford, Ill., was the first leader, then Mr. E. P. Olson was elected, and for a little more than a year Mrs.

"My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Phil. 4, 19. W. F.

CHRIST AND THE LODGE

"If Christ should apply for membership in your lodge, would you admit Him? If you did, you would wreck your lodge; for when He was on earth, He said: 'In secret have I said nothing', and if He should join your lodge, He would at once uncover all your secrets to the whole world, and your lodge would be no more." — Dr. J. E. Conant, in Tabernacle Baptist Church, Waco, Texas.

"Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1, 29.

RULES FOR THE READING AND STUDY OF THE BIBLE

1. PRAY to God when you sit down to read the Bible, and also while you read it. You need God's Holy Spirit to teach you and to lead you into all wisdom.

2. When you read the Holy Book, remember that you are reading God's Word. God speaks to you in the Bible.

3. Read a few verses, then think upon them, and pray over them, and you will understand your Bible better from day to day.

4. Let every word, and verse, and chapter lead you to Christ. Always ask, "What does this verse or chapter teach me about my Savior?"

5. Look for the verse which you like best in every chapter, underline it in your Bible with a colored (red or blue or any other color) pencil, and then memorize it, if you can. J. L. S.

LUTHERAN SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, DETROIT, MICH.

Also your deaf child must know the Savior and His cleansing blood! Without this knowledge it cannot be saved. In our Lutheran School the deaf children learn this excellent knowledge of Christ Jesus (Phil. 3, 8) and learn to pray:

"Jesus' blood and righteousness
My jewels are, my glorious dress,
Wherein before my God I stand,
When I shall reach the heavenly land." Amen.

Send your child to this School. Write to Rev. Wm. Gielow, Supt., 6841 Nevada Ave., Detroit, Mich.
