

RISE, MY SOUL TO WATCH AND PRAY

1. Rise, my soul for watch and pray,
From my sleep now wake;
Don't let that day full trouble
Catch me not watching.
Because that enemy true we know,
Often devil harvest gathers
While Christian sleeps.
2. Watch against devil his traps
Don't the devil find you sleeping;
Because truly no zeal he keeps-back
For deceive and blind you.
Satan's followers often truly people
That peaceful sleeping
And fail continue watching.
3. Watch! Let not sin full world
With that power defeat you.
Watch, don't let temptation showing world
Fool and hurt you.
Watch and see perhaps happen
False faith friends that tempt you,
And only want harm you.
4. Watch myself, my soul,
Don't play-play with God's grace;
Don't let sin control my thinking
And don't push-away god's love.
Pride and sin hide in us
Wanting all our hopes scatter;
Don't attention when they flirt.

(Continued)

RISE, MY SOUL TO WATCH AND PRAY

5. But while watching, also pray,
To our Lord continuing.
HE will free you, become your support,
Strength and faith improving.
O Lord, bless during trouble
And let nothing lead me wrong
From that want for serve YOU.

6. Therefore let us watch and pray,
We know God will hear us.
As we see each day, day
Bad always happen near us,
And that end we see coming,
Our day redemption comes near,
When our Lord appears. Amen

TLH 446
LW 302
LBW 443