

LORD, TO THEE I MAKE CONFESSION

1. Lord, to YOU I make my confess;
Truly law-break and wander-away,
Truly multiplied temptations,
Chosen for myself my way.
Led through YOU for understand my wrongs,
Lord, I fear YOUR angry punish.
2. But, although my conscience frighten me,
Father, I will seek YOUR face;
Truly, I can't name myself YOUR child,
Please accept me with YOUR grace.
Don't forsake me because my many law-break;
Don't let YOUR anger catch, destroy me.
3. Because Your Son HIMSELF suffer for me,
Gave HIMSELF in pain for save me,
Died for make my soul become well again,
And HIMSELF make me friends with you.
True HIS cross can defeat all my fears,
True HIS cross can quiet all my grief.
4. Now on him I throw all my burden,
Drown that in HIS holy blood,
Let me know YOUR grace full with forgive,
Wash me, make me white same as snow.
Let YOUR Holy Spirit leave me never;
Make me remain belong YOURS forever. Amen
